Tabardrey's Safety Program Pays Off

Tabardrey Plant of Cone Mills Corporation, one of the two Cone plants in Haw River, has gone all out to promote safety and prevent accidents For more than a year, now the supervisors and employees in this plant have been make ing a special effort to prevent themselves and their fellow-workers from getting hurt. The result is one of the most remarkable reductions of injuries on record with this com-pany, according to Wallace Bourne, in charge of safety records. In the calendar year of 1952 there were 16 disabling injuries at Tabardrey Plant, costing 268 days of lost time and uncounted cost in lost income and lost production. To reduce this high toll of injuries and time lost, the employees of all departments were enlisted in a safety program. Each department was given a sign with changeable lettering, and the number of lost time injuriès and medical care injuries was posted for all to see. The use of protective clothing was encour aged and the need for doing all jobs safely was emphasized.

For 1953, Tabardrey's accident frequency dropped to 2.4 per mil- Entre Nous Club lion man-hours worked. This means that the plant had just two disabling injuries during the calendar year with a total of 31 days of lost time and no permanent disabilities.

Furthermore, it is difficult to translate her behavior into any other meaning than that of a desire for world domination. If Russia's real interest were protection of her country, or proper recognition, or a stronger economy, we believe there are many ways that she could proceed with good hopes.

Then too, if her sole interest were in behalf of recognition of Communist China, we believe that she could accomplish far more by pursuing the matter in a more diplomatic and rational manner. It is indeed farfetched to believe that the Russian program is particularly concerned with Red China other and that to the extent that her success in forcing than to the extent that her success in forcing that the field of government.
